A top-down view of a smudging ceremony setup. In the center is a brass bowl with intricate embossed patterns, containing a smudge stick made of dried sage leaves tied with black and white string. White smoke is rising from the burning stick. The bowl sits on a dark green wooden plank surface. Surrounding the bowl are various natural elements: a large, rough white crystal in the top left; a green chrysanthemum flower in the top left; a sprig of cedar with a small orange cone in the top right; a yellow pom-pom flower in the middle right; a large, rough white crystal in the bottom right; a green chrysanthemum flower in the bottom center; and a sprig of cedar with a small orange cone in the bottom left.
